

DR. GREENE'S NERVURA MAKES Strong Bodies, Pure Blood and Vigorous Nerves.

Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy always insures the greatest measure of strength and vigor. No such thing as failure in life is possible in perfect manhood. It is lack of vital force—weakness and inactivity of body and nerves—that strews the world with human wreckage. Poor blood fails to nourish and thenceforward muscles become weak. A noticeable failure of strength ensues. A feeling of exhaustion follows. Sleeplessness is the next symptom of a decadence, intensifying the nervous derangement. The stomach becomes affected, as shown by biliousness, indigestion, dyspepsia, weak back, headache, melancholy, discouragement, until the sufferers begin to despair of recovery.

Dr. Greene's Nervura is the only specific for disease and weakness of the blood and nerves. Under its magic influence physical weakness, exhaustion and mental depression quickly disappear and exhilaration, strength and buoyancy mark the beginning of a new life of happiness and success.

Mr. John C. Milroy, 64 South First Street, Meriden, Conn., says:

"I suffered terribly from nervousness, headache, lack of appetite and that tired feeling all the time. I tried Dr. Greene's Nervura and I found it was just what I wanted. I had fallen to the ground. Now I weigh a little over 150 pounds. I have always been considered about the strongest man in town and in order to keep up my reputation in that respect, I should keep on using Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy."

Everybody needs and should take a good spring medicine, and Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is the greatest and grandest of all spring remedies. People have absolute confidence in Dr. Greene's Nervura, more so than in any other remedy, because a famous regular physician prescribes it, which is a guarantee that it is perfectly adapted to cure. As an additional assurance of cure, Dr. Greene, 35 West 14th Street, New York City, gives you the privilege of consulting him without charge or cost, either by calling or writing about your case.

STATE CERTIFICATES.

NINE TEACHERS WHO ARE THROUGH WITH EXAMINATIONS. MANY WILL FINISH THIS SUMMER.

A Very Complete Test of Proficiency—General Capitol News—He Wants a Southern Sweetheart—Says His Family is Mistrusted.

The Department of Education made public yesterday the names of those teachers who passed the State examinations at the normal schools last summer, and have been given seven-year professional certificates, which carry authority to teach during that period in any of the public schools of the State.

It is very probable that at the expiration of that time the certificates will be indefinitely extended.

THE SUCCESSFUL TEACHERS.

The teachers were examined in orthography, reading, writing, arithmetic, grammar, geography, history of the United States, general history, algebra, physiology, civil government, Virginia school laws, and theory and practice of teaching. The list of those who passed follows: W. Patton Graham, Jonesville, Lee county, Va., professional certificate; Miss Sophia L. Henrich, New Market, Va., professional certificate; Daniel Hays, Broadway, Va., professional certificate; John H. Keller, Tom's Brook, Va., professional certificate; Miss Minnie L. Moore, Portsmouth, Va., professional certificate; Ed. T. Showalter, Sussex, Va., professional certificate; W. C. Preston, York, Va., professional certificate; Joseph W. Showalter, Snowville, Va., professional certificate; Samuel W. Winesett, Wood Lawn, Va., professional certificate.

PARTIALLY SUCCESSFUL.

The following teachers passed at the branches named, and are expected to complete the examination at the summer normals this year: Miss Sue F. Beal, Scottsville, Va.—Reading, spelling, grammar, geography, United States history, general history, physiology, Virginia school laws, and theory and practice. Miss Annie L. Brotherton, Pearisburg, Va.—Reading, spelling, grammar, geography, United States history, general history, physiology, civil government, Virginia school laws, and theory and practice. Miss Annie E. Burton, Bellevue, Bedford county, Va.—Spelling, grammar, geography, United States history, general history, and theory and practice. Miss Mary C. TWO YOUNG MEN INDULGE IN A FISTIC WAR.

TAXES OF RETAIL MERCHANTS.

Ordinance Committee Recommends an Ordinance Fixing What They Shall Pay—Brought Home for Burial—Personals and Briefs.

There was quite a lively time on west Seventh street, Manchester, last night, caused by an altercation between Jesse Farrar and L. K. Fitz. When it was over Fitz came to the police station and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Farrar. The warrant was placed in the hands of Policeman Jones for execution, and Farrar was arrested about 9 o'clock last night and brought to the station-house.

ORDINANCE COMMITTEE MEETS.

The Council Committee on Ordinances met last night in the Council chamber and recommended to the Council an ordinance governing the license on retail merchants. Those present were Messrs. S. P. Jones, Matthew Morton, R. L. Patram, L. M. Nunnally, Judge Clayton, City Attorney, and Mr. Samuel P. Owens, Commissioner of the Revenue.

The ordinance drawn up by the City Attorney to control the licensing of retail merchants was first taken up and discussed at length. It was recommended that the Council adopt it. It provides that these business men shall pay a tax of 75 cents on the $100. The body then took up and discussed the ordinance presented some time ago, which offers special inducements to manufacturers to locate in Manchester. It has already been printed in these columns. It was recommended to the Council for adoption. In the absence of Mr. W. B. Bradley, the chairman, Mr. S. P. Jones was made chairman pro tem.

BROUGHT HOME FOR INTERMENT.

The remains of Mr. Paul C. Clay, who died in Norfolk Thursday morning and taken to the old Clay homestead, in Chesterfield county, for burial. Deceased was sick about three weeks with typhoid fever. He was well known in the county, and this, and very popular. He married Miss Bernice Hancock of Chesterfield. She and two children survive him. He left three sisters also—Mrs. W. A. Jacob, Mrs. George Harris, and Miss Nannie Clay—and three brothers—Charles, Samuel, and Frank Clay.

PERSONALS AND BRIEFS.

A large congregation heard Mr. J. C. Reed preach at Central Methodist church last night. Much interest is being taken in the revival.

Miss Mattie Lou Moody, of Chester, who has been visiting her cousin, Miss Betty Moody, No. 136 McDonough street, has returned.

A called meeting of the Manchester Council of Royal Arcanum was held last night, and several candidates were initiated members.

The Haptasophs of Swansboro held a meeting also last night, and transacted routine business.

John Brockwell was before Mayor Maurice yesterday morning for being drunk, and was fined $1, which he paid.

WILL OF JOHN HOWARD.

The Elam Case Still on Trial—Judgments and Suits.

The will of the late John Howard was admitted to probate in the Chancery Court yesterday, his son, John Howard, Jr., qualifying as executor. The estate is valued at $10,000.

The will was written January 18, 1889, and the testator bequeaths all his property, real and personal, to his wife for her benefit and the benefit of his children. He commends, especially, his eldest daughter to her care. His wife, his son, William T. Howard, and Hill Carter were named as executors.

On February 2, 1888, the deceased added a codicil, stating that his son, William T. Howard, having located in another State, his youngest son, John Howard, Jr., should be substituted as executor.

In the Law and Equity Court judgment was rendered in favor of J. S. Moore & Son against G. W. and V. C. Wilt for $678.78.

The jury in the case of L. Elam's Administrator against the Chesapeake and Ohio, now on trial in this court, was yesterday afternoon taken to the scene of Elam's death, on Second street. Argument was begun yesterday evening.

It was not until 10 o'clock that the hearing of the case was adjourned until this morning.

In the Circuit Court yesterday morning the suit of J. S. Rhea's Administrator against the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company was dismissed under the five-year law.

St. Patrick's at the Bijou.

The Bijou at both performances yesterday had green trimmings on, in honor of St. Patrick's Day, and Manager Wells wore a shamrock in his left buttonhole.

While the S. H. O. sign was being placed at the matinee, the audience was a fairly large one. Miss Gertrude Rutledge at the evening performance changed some of her old songs for those of a little later vintage, a course she should have adopted earlier in the week. Za Zelle and Vernon, the comedy bar performers, are the laughing hit of the bill, while the Toledo Brothers, in their contortion act, were as amusing as usual.

The entire satisfaction of the small boys in the gallery, who think they use goose grease on their persons every night before retiring. Miss Nona was as popular as ever.

A new piano player, Mr. Frank Harms, of New York, was on hand at both performances. He will fill Mr. Davis's place until the latter gets ready. There will be the usual Saturday matinee to-day.

In Honor of St. Joseph.

Solemn high mass will be celebrated at St. Joseph's church to-day in honor of St. Joseph at 9 o'clock. To-morrow high mass will be sang at 9 A. M., and will be followed by solemn benediction. Bishop Van Wyver officiating. This mass will close the novena which has been conducted in this church.

Free Dispensary Board.

A called meeting of the Board of Managers of the Homeopathic Free Dispensary will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the dispensary. Very important business is to be transacted.

HE CAME FROM ST. AUGUSTINE.

A Negro Boy Made the Long Trip Chained Beneath a Train.

George Davis, a diminutive colored boy about 12 years of age, who says he is a bootblack at Cairo, Ill., came here yesterday morning on the Florida special over the Atlantic-Coast Line, having come through from St. Augustine, Fla., chained beneath a sleeping-car. The lad was found in a half-starved condition by Officer Jake Lange, and taken to the almshouse, where he is being cared for. He has suffered considerably, and is greatly weakened by his trip. He says that he was at St. Augustine Wednesday night, and he crawled under the Florida special, and chaining himself to a ladder which he found strapped beneath a sleeper, he made the trip of more than 1,000 miles stretched beneath the coach. When found in the "berth" yesterday morning at the Byrd Street Depot he was very sick, and the ambulance was sent for. Dr. Brown came in charge of it, and the lad was carried to the almshouse, where he was given a supply of food to make up for lost time. He seems, and before that time Reardon had the money. Reardon is a stranger in the city.

Walter Toler cursed and threatened to break down the door of Mary Davis, and was fined $2.50.

Kitty Lewis came next. She was charged with striking Lily Rogers with a stone, and was fined $2.50 and costs.

William Robinson (colored) came last, except the drunks. He was charged with giving a beating to Blanche Burke, and was fined $2.50.
